proudly presents

Art of Seeing - Listowel Photography Walk 3-Day Photography Workshop with Phoenix

Join award-winning nature, wildlife and portrait photographer Phoenix as you step outside the doors of Olive Stack Gallery to capture the magic of sunrise in Listowel -- landscapes, gardens and streets.

€40 for Any One Session, €80 for All 3 Days (50% deposit secures place)

Day 1: Tuesday, October 18, 6 – 8 pm

Review the basics of camera function and operation and learn five keys to composition to create memorable images. Bring your camera, camera manual and questions.

Day 2: Saturday, October 22, 7:30am – 10am

Day 3: Tuesday, October 25, 6 – 8 pm

Discuss your best images with emphasis on composition, point of view and why a certain image was selected. You'll learn to develop the "photographic eye" to continue your photo-adventures.

All skill levels welcome. Digital SLR, mirrorless, or advanced point & shoot are recommended.

What To Bring: Camera, camera manual, lenses ranging from 16mm to 200mm -- whatever lense(s) you have work(s), memory cards, extra camera battery. Optional: a tripod, speedlight, reflector, filters.

About Phoenix: For Phoenix the wonder and beauty of nature and wilderness are her passion; photography is her art. Known for her almost painterly, realistic photographs, her works are in private collections, been honored in numerous juried exhibitions and showcased in 10 solo exhibitions, including Everglades National Park Gallery. Phoenix's primary studio and sanctuary is south Florida's wetlands, in particular the Everglades. Professionally Phoenix serves as president of the National League of American Pen Women, Fort Lauderdale. A native Miamian, Phoenix lives in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.
